Trip to the Scilly's

I have just had the most wonderful month. I spent the first week and a half getting the last few bits organised to bring Pioneer out sailing. What a trip it was! One of our Trustees chartered the boat for him and his family to sail her down to the Isles of Scilly.

We had gorgeous sunny weather almost the entire time. We spent one day, tacking through the Solent with perfect wind and a good opportunity to show off the lovely Pioneer. When we arrived at the Scilly's we had a magical tour of the islands where we went seal spotting, hill walking and cowry shell hunting. It is such a beautiful peaceful place.

On the way back, we spent a couple of days in Torquay waiting out some unfavourable weather. We travelled to some of the villages around the area, Salcombe, Brixham, Dartmouth and Dartmouth Park. It was really nice to see more of the South coast. I am looking forward to doing more sailing in the coming months.
