

UK Maritime Heritage Forum

Riverside Museum & The Tall Ship Glenlee Glasgow

13–15 November 2019

PROGRAMME

NB. Timings, talk titles & speakers may be subject to small changes – delegates will be issued with a final programme before the conference

Evening, Wednesday 13 November

Timings	Activity	Venue
18.00-20:00	Duncan Dornan, Director of Glasgow Museums, invites you to the launch of their latest publication: Glasgow Museums: The Ship Models – A History and Complete Illustrated Catalogue Please join us for a glass of wine and a private view of Riverside Museum. (Free, optional event but advance booking on Eventbrite is essential)   If you would like to eat with other delegates before or afterwards, we can arrange tables at one of Glasgow's best curry houses, Mother India, or the Italian restaurant La Rotunda (both close to suggested hotels). If so, email emily.malcolm@glasgowlife.org.uk	Riverside Museum

Thursday 14 November

Timings	Activity	Venue
09.15-10.30	Registration; tea and coffee on arrival Tour of Riverside Museum and Glenlee	Riverside Museum
10.30-11.00	Welcome to UKMHF 2019 Session 1: Museums and wellbeing Keynote lecture: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Museums and Health – Strategic Action Mark O’Neill, Associate Professor, College of Arts University of Glasgow 	Riverside Museum Education Space
11.00-12.30	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Public health and social change through meaningful work David Lees, GalGael Trust • Becoming more useful: piloting approaches to wellbeing Sarah Lockwood and Rosalind Croker, Royal Museums Greenwich • Sustaining maritime pasts, present and futures in Orkney and Shetland: co-curating a virtual ‘ecosystem of memory’ with museums and their communities in the Northern Isles Catherine J. McCullagh, PhD Researcher, Heriot-Watt University; Institute for Northern Studies, UHI, and Shetland Museum and Archives Panel Discussion with Mark O’Neill and other speakers
12.30-13.30	Lunch There will be the chance to visit the Kelvin Harbour Pontoons to view Glenlee’s small vessel collection and GalGael’s Orcuan , visit Glenlee’s workshop or view short films in Riverside Museum’s boardroom.	Riverside Museum Glenlee Workshops
13.30-14.15	Session 2: Maritime Heritage Network Separate agenda to be issued (including election of committee) Interim Chair of MHN: Matthew Tanner Secretary of MHN: Joanna Mathers	Riverside Education Space

14.15-17.15	Session 3: Study Visits Please select choice of study visit on Eventbrite when booking Study Visit 1 Fairfield Heritage Centre, Govan (by bus) Visit one of Clyde's most imposing industrial buildings, the offices of the Fairfield Shipbuilding and Engineering Co. Ltd. Now housing a heritage centre and office space, the red sandstone building was designed by Glasgow architects Honeyman & Keppie and built between 1889-1891. The wider shipyard is now operated by BAE Systems and we have been offered a tour of the working shipyard for 10-15 delegates. Places will be allocated by a random draw (see Eventbrite to be placed in the draw; security clearance will be required in advance). Study Visit 2 Waverley and Queen Mary (10 mins' walk from Riverside Museum & close to recommended hotels) Visit two historic steamers, both with fascinating histories and interesting operational and conservation issues. Waverley (built A&J Inglis, 1947) is the last sea-going paddle steamer in the world and Queen Mary (John Brown & Co. Ltd, 1933, ex. Queen Mary II) is the latest historic vessel to find a home on the Clyde. There will also be the opportunity to visit the Clydeside Distillery, which is housed in the 1877 hydraulic pump house for Queen's Dock (additional cost of around £11 which includes whisky tasting & is payable on the day).
17.15-17.30	Return to Riverside Museum via Premier Inn Pacific Quay and Scottish Exhibition Centre station/hotels
17.30-18.45	Free time
18.45-21.30	Conference reception and dinner on board Glenlee, one of the most atmospheric venues in Glasgow Please select your meal choices on Eventbrite when booking Enjoy some real Scottish entertainment with music and dancing from the Feis Fhiort Teenage Ceilidh Band, dinner (with haggis, neeps and tatties option) and a round of Auld Lang Syne at the end of the evening	Tall Ship Glenlee

Friday 15 November

Timings	Activity	Venue
09.15-09.30	Arrival
09.30-10.45	Session 4: Project updates 10-minute short talks <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Naval Gazing? Maritime Britain and 19th Century Global Mobility James Boyd, Brunel Institute (SS Great Britain Trust and University of Bristol) Scarborough Maritime Heritage Centre celebrates its 10th Birthday Mark Vesey, Scarborough Maritime Heritage Centre Missing link? Community practice of live heritage of the urban and inland waterways: a study in the river Clyde and the Forth and Clyde Canal Eleni Koumpouzi, University of the West of Scotland Pilgrim's Second Life: The end of the beginning! Roger Crumpton, Trustee & Secretary, Pilgrim Heritage Sailing Foundation 3D Digitisation Projects at the Scottish Maritime Museum Marta Pilarska, Scottish Maritime Museum Life as a SHTP2 Trainee Sean Chilton, Hannah Hurford & Kate Tatlow, SHTP2 Trainees (5 minutes each) 	Riverside Museum Education Space
10.45-11.15	Coffee
11.15-13.00	Session 5: Conservation Management Planning <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Current and future challenges for Scotland's Historic Environment Dr David Mitchell, Director of Conservation, Historic Environment Scotland 'No Guru, No method, No teacher' - Implementation of working management plans Ian Clark, Ian Clark Restoration Talk title tbc Stephen Beresford, Windermere Jetty, Museum of Boats, Steam & Stories Panel discussion	Riverside Museum Education Space
13.00-14.00	Lunch

14.00- 15.30	Session 6: Break-out Sessions Delegates break into three groups for 15-minute talks and discussion Please select your group on Eventbrite when booking Ship Models <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Exploring the McManus Ship model Collection Julie McCombie, McManus, Dundee Making a model of the Imperial Yacht Livadia Ewan Kennedy Merseyside Maritime Museum Ship Models Rebecca Smith, MMM Scottish Church Ship Models – a review of research findings Meredith Greiling, National Museums Scotland Connecting Through Stories <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Connecting through Stories at Riverside Museum Heather Robertson, Glasgow Museums Global Stories – How maritime documents connect people in the past and present Joanna Mathers (Maritime Curator) & Nick Booth (Head of Collections), SS Great Britain Trust The “how”, “where” and “why” of creating new narratives about the maritime past Clare McComb, freelance historian Last Voyage of Islamount Elizabeth Allen, Clyde Maritime Trust Ltd. Pathways to Funding for Historic Vessels <ol style="list-style-type: none"> New National Historic Ships UK guidelines on funding Hannah Cunliffe & Victoria Walworth, National Historic ships UK The Glenlee Dry Dock Project Frank Brown, CEO Clyde Maritime Centre Ltd. Get Those Paddles Turning! The story of the 39-year campaign to save the Maid of the Loch, Loch Lomond’s Paddler Steamer John Beveridge, Maid of the Loch HMS Unicorn Steve Wood, Unicorn Preservation Society 	Riverside Museum Boardroom Riverside Museum Education Space Tall Ship Glenlee
-----------------	---	---

15.30-15.45	Session 7: Wrap-up of formal conference proceedings <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Preview presentation for UKMHF in 2020
15.45-17.00	Self-guided visit to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Glenlee • Riverside Museum • Kelvingrove Museum and Art Gallery • Kelvinhall

The Forum ends at 5pm on the 15th, but there are many attractions in Glasgow and the surrounding area if you want to make a weekend of it!

If you would like to eat with other delegates on the evening of the 15th we can arrange tables at Mother India or La Rotunda (both close to suggested hotels), or recommend other places to eat.

There are a multitude of entertainment options for the weekend – music on offer ranges from Liam Gallacher and Mozart’s Jupiter Symphony on the 15th to the Australian Pink Floyd Show and Jazz at the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland on the 16th. There is also traditional music at Glasgow’s famous Islay Inn with the band Parting Glass on the 15th as well as many regular music nights in the city centre. Comedy and Theatre includes John Bishop at the Pavilion Theatre, and Motown, The Musical at the King’s Theatre.

There is also much of maritime interest in the region, and the following attractions will offer free entry to UKMHF delegates on production of their delegate badges:

- Scottish Maritime Museum, Irvine
- Denny Ship Model Experiment Tank, Dumbarton
- Royal Yacht Britannia, Leith
- HMS Unicorn, Dundee